

WCIP : Draft outcome document to be adopted by the General Assembly on 22 September 2014
(highlighting changes in the text , between draft 0, 1, 2, 3 and final)

 * Orange : new or significant changes in 3rd draft -Underlined words in 2nd draft : eliminated (missing) in 3rd draft -Purple : new or changes in 2nd Draft -Blue : new in 1st Draft Red : in Zero Draft but eliminated or significantly changed in 1st Draft -Green : minor changes in wording Red & italics (in 4th column - « Zero Draft as distributed »): the whole article is missing from the First Draft Light green background in final version : article's number changed regarding 3rd draft -yellow background : new article in final version Blue -bold in final version : new regarding 3rd draft
Final draft	Remarks made by States on the 2 nd draft (29 August 2014)	3rd draft (as on 5 September 2014)	2nd draft (26 August 2014)	First Draft (8 August 2014)	Zero Draft (8 July 2014) Corresp. with 1st Draft	First Draft : official explanatory notes
1.We, the Heads of State and Government, ministers and representatives of Member States, reaffirming our solemn commitment to the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, in a spirit of cooperation with the indigenous peoples of the world, are assembled at United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 and 23 September 2014, on the occasion of the high-level plenary meeting of the General Assembly known as the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples, to reiterate the important and continuing role of the United Nations in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples.		1. We, the Heads of State and Government, Ministers and representatives of Member States, reaffirming our solemn commitment to the purposes and principles of the United Nations Charter, in a spirit of cooperation with the indigenous peoples of the world are assembled at United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 and 23 September 2014, on the occasion of the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples, to reiterate the important and continuing role of the United Nations in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples.	1. We, the Heads of State and Government, Ministers and representatives of Member States, reaffirming our solemn commitment to the purposes and principles of the United Nations Charter, in a spirit of cooperation with the Indigenous Peoples of the world are assembled at United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 and 23 September 2014, on the occasion of the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples, to reiterate the important and continuing role of the United Nations in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples.	1. We, the Heads of State and Government, Ministers and representatives of Member States, noting our solemn commitment to the purposes and principles of the United Nations Charter, in a spirit of cooperation with the Indigenous Peoples of the world, assembled at United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 and 23 September 2014, on the occasion of the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples, to reiterate the important and continuing role of the United Nations in promoting and Protecting the rights of Indigenous peoples. [chapeaux]	We, the Heads of State and Government, Ministers and representatives of Member States, in a spirit of cooperation with the Indigenous Peoples of the world, assembled at United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 and 23 September 2014, on the occasion of the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples, to reiterate the important and continuing role of the United Nations in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples. We welcome the contribution of indigenous peoples to the World Conference in terms of articulating the issues of greatest importance to them, as set out in the Alta Outcome Document' emanating from the Global Indigenous Preparatory Conference for the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples held in Alta, Norway in June 2013. (Annex 1). We also note the inclusive preparatory process for this High-level Plenary meeting, including the comprehensive engagement of the representatives of indigenous peoples in all Consultations.	OP1-3 The chapeaux has been become three operative paragraphs due to its increasing length. It now includes a reference to the UN Charter, as requested by some Member States.
2.We welcome the indigenous peoples' preparatory processes for the World Conference, including the Global Indigenous Preparatory Conference held in Alta, Norway, in June 2013. We take note of the outcome document of the Alta Conference and other contributions made by indigenous peoples. We also welcome the inclusive preparatory process for the high-level plenary meeting, including the comprehensive engagement of the representatives of indigenous peoples.	New Zealand, European Union, Mexico, Peru, Norway, Bolivia, Guatemala: Reinsert Alta Outcome Document as Annex. Vietnam: Questions on validity of highlighting Alta.	2. We welcome the indigenous peoples' preparatory processes for the World Conference including the Global Indigenous Preparatory Conference for the World Conference on indigenous peoples held in Alta, Norway, in June 2013. We take note of the outcome document of the Alta Conference and other contributions made by indigenous peoples. We also welcome the inclusive preparatory process for this High-level Plenary meeting, including the comprehensive engagement of the representatives of indigenous peoples.	2.We welcome the indigenous peoples' preparatory processes for the World Conference including the Global Indigenous Preparatory Conference for the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples held in Alta, Norway, in June 2013. We take note of the outcome document of the Alta Conference and other contributions made by indigenous peoples. We also welcome the inclusive preparatory process for this High-level Plenary meeting, including the comprehensive engagement of the representatives of indigenous peoples.	2-We welcome the contribution of indigenous peoples to the World Conference in terms of articulating the issues of greatest importance to them, as set out in the Alta Outcome Document emanating from the Global Indigenous Preparatory Conference for the World Conference on Indigenous Peoples held in Alta, Norway, in June 2013 (Annex 1). We also note the inclusive preparatory process for this High-level Plenary meeting, including the comprehensive engagement of the representatives of indigenous peoples. [chapeaux]

3. We reaffirm our support for the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, adopted by the General Assembly on 13 September 2007, and our commitments made in this respect to consult and cooperate in good faith with the indigenous peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent before adopting and implementing legislative or administrative measures that may affect them, in accordance with the applicable principles of the Declaration.	United States: Addition - . we reaffirm our support for the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples's commitment..." Delete: "prior to the approval of any project affecting their lands, territories and resources or " Canada: Delete " in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent" Russian Federation, Brazil: Delete: "prior to the approval of any project affecting their lands, territories and resources or " Australia, Vietnam: Insert "recalling article 46 of the United Nations Declaration on Indigenous peoples Peoples" Mexico: Keep as is. Peru, Suriname, Guyana, Belize: Delete: " In adopting this outcome document" Norway: "In adopting this outcome document, we commit to consult and cooperate in good faith with indigenous Peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free, prior and informed..." «We commit to develop and implement with Indigenous Peoples, national mechanisms based on human rights standards, which are culturally appropriate and flexible, and relevant for the promotion of the right to for consultations in order to obtain free, prior and informed consent and those, in particular, that are directed at respecting the traditional territories of Indigenous Peoples".	3. We reaffirm our support for the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of indigenous peoples and its commitment to consult and cooperate in good faith with indigenous peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent, prior to the approval of any project affecting their lands, territories and resources or before adopting and implementing legislative or administrative measures that may affect them.	3. In adopting this outcome document, we reaffirm our commitment to consult and cooperate in good faith with indigenous peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent, prior to the approval of any project affecting their lands, territories and resources or before adopting and implementing legislative or administrative measures that may affect them.	3. In adopting this outcome document, we commit to consult and cooperate in good faith with indigenous peoples through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free, prior and informed consent before adopting and implementing legislative or administrative measures that may affect them. [chapeaux - new OP]		OP3 is a new paragraph which covers the issue of "free, prior and informed consent" early in the outcome document, avoiding the need for later repetition. It reflects Article 19 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples .
4. We reaffirm our solemn commitment to respect, promote and advance and in no way diminish the rights of indigenous peoples and to uphold the principles of the Declaration.	United States, Canada, Russian Federation: Delete: " including those set out" Canada: Replace with "and to promote the principles of "	4. We reaffirm our solemn commitment to respect, promote and advance and in no way diminish the rights of indigenous peoples and to promote the principles of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples adopted by the General Assembly on 13 September 2007 .	4. We reaffirm our solemn commitment to respect, promote and advance and in no way diminish the rights of indigenous peoples, including those set out in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples adopted by the General Assembly on 13 September 2007 .	4. We reaffirm our solemn commitment to promote and advance the rights of indigenous peoples, including the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples adopted by the General Assembly on 13 September 2007 , which sets the minimum standards for the survival, dignity, and well-being of the Indigenous Peoples of the world. [OP1]	1. Reaffirm our solemn commitment to promote and advance the rights of indigenous peoples already established in universally agreed international human rights norms and standards, including the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, which sets the minimum standards for the survival, dignity, and well-being of the Indigenous Peoples of the world	This paragraph reflects Article 43 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples concerning "the minimum standards for the survival, dignity and wellbeing of the indigenous peoples of the world".
5. In addition to the Declaration, we recall the other major achievements of the past two decades in building an international framework for the advancement of the rights and aspirations of the world's indigenous peoples, including the establishment of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the creation of the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the establishment of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples. We commit ourselves to giving due consideration to recommendations and advice issued by those bodies in cooperation with indigenous peoples.	United States, Russian Federation: Delete last sentence of para. Australia, Chile: Second sentence - "We commit to consider in good faith the recommendations and..." European Union, Mexico, Peru, Guatemala: Maintain last sentence as is.	5. In addition to the Declaration, we recall the other major achievements of the past two decades in building an international framework for the advancement of the rights and aspirations of the world's indigenous peoples, including the establishment of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the creation of an Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the appointment of a Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We commit to follow up on [consider in good faith] recommendations and advice issued by these bodies in cooperation with indigenous peoples.]	5. In addition to the Declaration, we recall the other major achievements of the past two decades in building an international framework for the advancement of the rights and aspirations of the world's indigenous peoples, including the establishment of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the creation of an Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the appointment of a Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We commit to follow up on recommendations and advice issued by these bodies in cooperation with indigenous peoples.	5. We recall other major achievements of the past two decades in building an international framework for the advancement of the rights and aspirations of the world's indigenous peoples, including the establishment of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the creation of an Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the appointment of a Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. [OP2]	2. Recall other major achievements of the past two decades in building an international framework for the advancement of the rights and aspirations of the world's indigenous peoples, including the establishment of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, the creation of an Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the appointment of a Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and commit to follow up on the recommendations and advice issued by these bodies.

6.We encourage those States that have not yet ratified or acceded to the International Labour Organization Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169), to consider doing so. We recall the obligation of ratifying States under the Convention to develop coordinated and systematic action to protect the rights of indigenous peoples.	Norway: We believe it should include "constitutional, policy and legislative measures »	6.We encourage those states that have not yet ratified or acceded to the International Labour Organization Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (no. 169), to consider doing so; we recall the obligation under the Convention, of ratifying States to develop coordinated and systematic action to protect the rights of indigenous peoples.	6.We encourage those states that have not yet ratified or acceded to the International Labour Organization Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (no. 169), to consider doing so; we recall the obligation under the Convention, of ratifying States to develop coordinated and systematic action to protect the rights of indigenous peoples. [1st 7]	6. We commit to actions at the national level intended to achieve the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, including as appropriate, legislative measures, and to promote awareness of it among all sectors of society, especially Members of Parliament, the judiciary, electoral officers, educators and the civil service. [OP4 &5]	4. Commit to actions directed at translating the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples into national law, and to promote awareness of it among all sectors of society, especially the judiciary, Members of Parliament, electoral officers, educators and the civil service 5. Harmonize our national constitutions and legislation, where relevant, to recognize and protect the rights of indigenous peoples, consistent with the provisions of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.	This paragraph draws on language from Resolution 66/142 (OP4) which encourages states to take "the appropriate measures, including legislative measures, to achieve the ends" of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
7.We commit ourselves to taking, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples, appropriate measures at the national level, including legislative, policy and administrative measures, to achieve the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and to promote awareness of it among all sectors of society, including members of legislatures, the judiciary and the civil service.	United States, New Zealand, Russian Federation, Guatemala, Australia, Costa Rica: Delete "ends" and replace with "goals" Russian Federation: "We invite Governments to consider taking legislative..." European Union: Add "relevant" in front of "legislative" Australia: "We commit to take..." Vietnam: "We invite Governments to take legislative, policy and administrative measures as necessary and appropriate to achieve..." Brazil: Add "...measures, as appropriate..."	7.We commit to take legislative, policy and administrative measures to achieve the goals of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and to promote awareness of it among all sectors of society, especially Members of Parliament, the judiciary and the civil service.	7.We reaffirm our commitment to take legislative, policy and administrative measures to achieve the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and to promote awareness of it among all sectors of society, especially Members of Parliament, the judiciary and the civil service. [1st 6]	7. We encourage those states that have not yet ratified or acceded to the International Labour Organization Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (no. 169)3, to consider doing so and recall the obligation of ratifying States to take all necessary measures to make its provisions effective. [OP6]	6. Invite Governments that have not done so to ratify International Labour Organization Convention No. 169 on Indigenous and Tribal Peoples.
8.We commit ourselves to cooperating with indigenous peoples, through their own representative institutions, to develop and implement national action plans, strategies or other measures, where relevant, to achieve the ends of the Declaration.	United States: "We encourage governments to cooperate...action plans or strategies where relevant, devoted to supporting the ends of..." Venezuela: "...through their own ancestral forms of organization and representative institutions, to prepare and implement national action plans and strategies where." Australia, USA - Maintain "representative institutions" New Zealand, Costa Rica, Guatemala: "... national action plans and strategies..." Russian Federation: Use broader language, not only action plans. El Salvador: Retain "we commit" Norway: "We commit to implement measures devoted to the implementation of ..." or go with what the US proposed « We encourage national actions plans, strategies and other measures devoted to the implementation of the UNDRIP »	8.We commit to cooperate with indigenous peoples, through their own representative institutions, to prepare and implement national action plans and strategies and other mesures where relevant, devoted to the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.	8.We commit to cooperate with indigenous peoples, through their own representative institutions, to prepare and implement national action plans where relevant, devoted to achieving the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.	8. We commit to implement national action plans devoted to achieving the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We will cooperate with indigenous peoples through their own representative institutions in the preparation of such plans. [OP7]	7. Encourage Governments to prepare national action plans or strategies devoted to the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

9. We commit ourselves to promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous persons with disabilities and to continuing to improve their social and economic conditions, including by developing targeted measures for the aforementioned action plans, strategies or measures, in collaboration with indigenous persons with disabilities. We also commit ourselves to ensuring that national legislative, policy and institutional structures relating to indigenous peoples are inclusive of indigenous persons with disabilities and contribute to the advancement of their rights.	United States: "We affirm that our legislative, policy and administrative measures should include specific measures to address the rights of indigenous persons with disabilities and support, in collaboration with indigenous peoples the development of capacity for indigenous persons with disabilities to effectively participate in the preparation and implementation of these efforts to ensure that." Canada: "...to ensure that these national action plans include." New Zealand: We commit to promote and protect the rights of indigenous persons with disabilities and to continue to improve their social and economic conditions, including by developing targeted measures for national action plans and strategies in collaboration with indigenous persons with disabilities. We will ensure that national legislative, policy and institutional structures related to indigenous peoples are inclusive of indigenous persons with disabilities, and contribute to the advancement of their rights Russian Federation: Revert to previous version of document. European Union: Broaden language or consider NZ proposal. El Salvador: Add "strategies" in first and fifth line.	9. We commit to promote and protect the rights of indigenous persons with disabilities and to continue to improve their social and economic conditions, including by developing targeted measures for national actions plans and strategies in collaboration with indigenous persons with disabilities. We will ensure that national legislative, policy and administrative structures related to indigenous peoples are inclusive of indigenous persons with disabilities and contribute to the advancement of their rights.	9. We commit to ensure that national action plans include specific measures to address the rights of indigenous persons with disabilities. We will support, in collaboration with indigenous peoples the development of capacity for indigenous persons with disabilities to effectively participate in the preparation and implementation of these action plans, and ensure that legislative, policy and administrative structures related to indigenous peoples are inclusive of indigenous persons with disabilities.	9. We acknowledge that indigenous peoples have the right, without discrimination, to the improvement of their economic and social conditions. We therefore commit to include in national action plans, special measures to address the rights and needs of indigenous persons with disabilities. [new OP]		The paragraph draws on language from Articles 21 and 22 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
10. We commit ourselves to working with indigenous peoples to disaggregate data, as appropriate, or conduct surveys and to utilizing holistic indicators of indigenous peoples' well-being to address the situation and needs of indigenous peoples and individuals, in particular older persons, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities.	Canada, Russia: "We commit to work with indigenous peoples to disaggregate..." Russian Federation: Delete "culturally appropriate indicators" and delete "and individuals" United States - objects to deletion of "individuals" European Union: "...disaggregate data as appropriate or conduct surveys..." What are "culturally appropriate indicators"?	10. We commit to work with indigenous peoples to disaggregate data as appropriate, or conduct surveys and to utilize culturally sensitive indicators of indigenous peoples' well-being to address the situation and needs of indigenous peoples and individuals, particularly elders, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities.	10. We commit to empower, cooperate and coordinate with indigenous peoples to disaggregate data and utilise culturally appropriate indicators of indigenous peoples' well-being to address the situation and needs of indigenous peoples and individuals, particularly elders, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities.	10. We commit to cooperate and coordinate with indigenous peoples to disaggregate data and utilise cultural indicators to better understand and address the situation and needs of indigenous peoples, particularly elders, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities. [OP11]	11. Commit to work, with the free, prior and informed consent of indigenous peoples, to disaggregate data based on indigenous identity, censuses. This would be aimed at helping to draft and implement public policy and legislation that better addresses the situation of indigenous elders, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities.	The intention of "data disaggregation" in this paragraph is solely to aid public policy that would benefit indigenous peoples.
11. We commit ourselves to ensuring equal access to high-quality education that recognizes the diversity of the culture of indigenous peoples and to health, housing, water, sanitation and other economic and social programmes to improve well-being, including through initiatives, policies and the provision of resources. We intend to empower indigenous peoples to deliver such programmes as far as possible.	United States: "We encourage governments, with the full..." Bolivia (Norway, Ecuador, El Salvador, Venezuela, Peru, Panama) : add "water and sanitation" after housing. Australia: Revert to Rev. 1 of document. See Article 2 of ICESCR. re. progressive realization of rights. ...aimed at improving their well-being." Russian Fed: Revert to Rev 1. Canada: "We support the empowerment of indigenous peoples to..." Suriname: Insert "when possible to have before education." EU: "...to enable, including through the provision of adequate resources the empowerment of "... to establish and control where relevant, and have access to" Norway, New Zealand: Revert to Rev 1. Include "equal access...through the provision of adequate resources." Iran: "adequate resources that create enabling environments..." El Salvador: revert to Rev1 with inclusion of "water and sanitation"	11. We commit to ensure equal access to, and empower indigenous peoples, to deliver as far as possible, high quality and culturally adequate education, health, housing, water, sanitation and other economic and social programmes to improve their well-being, through the provision of adequate resources.	11. We commit, with the full, equal and effective participation of Indigenous Peoples, to provide adequate resources that enable the empowerment of Indigenous Peoples to deliver and have access to high quality and culturally based education, health, housing and other economic and social programmes to improve their well-being.	11. We commit to ensure equal access to, and empower indigenous peoples to deliver as far as possible, high-quality and culturally adequate education, health, housing, and other economic and social programmes to improve their well-being, through the provision of adequate resources. [OP31]	31. Commit to provide, with the full, equal and effective participation of indigenous peoples, adequate resources that enable the empowerment of indigenous peoples to deliver and have access to high-quality and culturally adequate education, health, including mental health, and housing to improve the well-being of indigenous peoples.	This paragraph draws on language from Articles 14, 21, 23 and 24 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

12. We recognize the importance of indigenous peoples' health practices and their traditional medicine and knowledge.	that indigenous individuals have equal access to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard..." Delete "will" and replace with "intend to" in following sentences. New Zealand: OK with "individuals" ...and intensify efforts to reduce rates of. Australia: "We aim to improve...HIV & AIDS" Add "tuberculosis" and refer to ...by ensuring the provision of appropriate resources..." Japan: Does this refer to international commitments? Insert "by mobilizing domestic resources." or "... through available resources and focusing on prevention" Russian Federation: Stay closer to agreed language. Last sentence is problematic. What is spiritual health? EU, Norway, New Zealand: add to second sentence "...and reproductive rights in accordance with the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development, the Beijing Platform for Action and the outcome documents of their review conferences..." Last sentence needs work - address issue based on UNDRIP 24.1 as separate para. "We reaffirm that indigenous peoples have the right to their traditional medicines and to maintain their health practices, including the conservation of their vital medicinal plants, animals and minerals." Brazil: add to end of para: "Such health services shall meet the demands of the indigenous peoples and to the extent possible be consistent with their traditional health practices and medicines" Holy See: Delete para. Saudi Arabia: Flexible re. Holy See and EU proposal.	12. We commit to ensure that indigenous peoples and individuals enjoy the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health. We shall improve access to sexual and reproductive health and reduce rates of HIV and AIDS, malaria, tuberculosis and non-communicable diseases, by increasing resources and focusing on prevention. We also respect indigenous peoples' traditional health practices, and medicines.	12. We commit to ensure that indigenous peoples and individuals enjoy the highest attainable standard of physical, mental and spiritual health. We will improve access to sexual and reproductive health and reduce rates of HIV/AIDS, malaria, and non-communicable diseases, by increasing resources and focusing on prevention. We will also respect indigenous peoples' traditional health practices, sciences and medicines.	12. We commit to ensure that indigenous peoples enjoy the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health, including with respect to sexual and reproductive health, HIV, and non-communicable diseases, through the provision of adequate resources. [new OP]		This paragraph draws on Article 24 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
13. We commit ourselves to ensuring that indigenous individuals have equal access to the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health. We also commit ourselves to intensifying efforts to reduce rates of HIV and AIDS, malaria, tuberculosis and non-communicable diseases by focusing on prevention, including through appropriate programmes, policies and resources for indigenous individuals, and to ensure their access to sexual and reproductive health and reproductive rights in accordance with the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development, the Beijing Platform for Action and the outcome documents of their review conferences. [D3-12]	United States: Delete "will". Canada: "We commit to work in consultation with indigenous peoples in order that indigenous peoples enjoy..." Delete reference to "increasing resources". EU: ...M...to facilitate their participation..." El Salvador: add "strategies" to be consistent. New Zealand (with youth caucus): We will support the empowerment and capacity-building of Indigenous youth, including their full and effective participation in decision making processes in matters that affect them. We commit to develop, in consultation with indigenous peoples, policies, programmes and resources targeted at the wellbeing of indigenous youth, particularly in the areas of health, education, employment and the transmission of traditional knowledge, languages and practices. We will also take measures to promote awareness and understanding of their rights.	13. We support the empowerment and capacity-building of Indigenous youth, including their full and effective participation in decision making processes in matters that affect them. We commit to develop, in consultation with indigenous peoples, policies, programmes and resources targeted at the well-being of indigenous youth particularly in the areas of health, education and transmission of traditional knowledge, languages and practices and to take measures to promote awareness and understanding of their rights.	13. We will support the empowerment and capacity-building of Indigenous youth for participation in decision making processes. We commit to develop, in consultation with indigenous peoples, policies, programmes and resources for indigenous youth that prioritize awareness and understanding of their rights, health, education and transmission of traditional knowledge, languages and practices.	13. We acknowledge the importance to indigenous peoples of development of their youth, in accordance with their aspirations and needs, and ensuring the transmission of traditional knowledge, innovation, languages and practices. We will support indigenous peoples in the development of indigenous youth, by providing adequate resources. [OP32]	32. Reaffirm that indigenous youth are equal to all other youth and we will support programmes of indigenous peoples to strengthen the capacity of indigenous youth, including the transmission of traditional knowledge, innovation and practices, as well as languages.

14. We commit ourselves to promoting the right of every indigenous child, in community with members of his or her group, to enjoy his or her own culture, to profess and practise his or her own religion or to use his or her own language.	United States: Delete "norms, standards and" Second sentence: "We commit to coordinate and conduct dialogue..." Australia: "...and can contribute to harmonious..." We commit to consult with indigenous peoples' justice institutions where they exist." Russian Fed: Insert "...established in accordance with national legislation..." after institutions. Add to end of para: "...where such institutions exist" Suriname (Norway, Iran, Ecuador): Revert to zero draft - retain "access to justice" Brazil: insert "consistent with human rights standards, principles as well as national legislation" El Salvador: Add "where they exist" to end of para. Vietnam: "...indigenous peoples' justice institutions established in accordance with national legislation can play..." Norway: add "where such institutions exist".	14. We acknowledge that indigenous peoples' justice institutions can play a positive role in providing access to justice and contribute to harmonious relationships within indigenous peoples' communities and within society, consistent with international human rights norms, standards and principles as well as national legislation. We commit to coordination and dialogue with indigenous peoples' justice institutions where such institutions exist.	14. We acknowledge that indigenous peoples' justice institutions can play a positive role in dispute resolution and contribute to harmonious relationships within indigenous peoples' communities and within society, consistent with international human rights norms, standards and principles. We commit to coordination and dialogue with indigenous peoples' justice institutions.	14. We acknowledge that indigenous peoples' justice institutions can play a positive role in dispute resolution and contribute to harmonious relationships within indigenous peoples' communities and within society, in line with international human rights standards. We commit to coordination and dialogue with indigenous peoples' justice institutions, where those institutions exist. [OP8 & OP9]	8. Acknowledge that indigenous peoples' justice mechanisms can play a positive role in dispute resolution and contribute to harmonious relationships within indigenous peoples' communities and within society in line with international human rights standards. All indigenous persons should enjoy full and equal access to these justice mechanisms. 9. Commit to coordination and dialogue with indigenous peoples' justice institutions so as to improve access to justice for indigenous peoples, in particular indigenous persons with disabilities and indigenous women and girls, as well as enhancing justice awareness campaigns, including ones directed at men and boys.
15. We support the empowerment and capacity-building of indigenous youth, including their full and effective participation in decision-making processes in matters that affect them. We commit ourselves to developing, in consultation with indigenous peoples, policies, programmes and resources, where relevant, that target the well-being of indigenous youth, in particular in the areas of health, education, employment and the transmission of traditional knowledge, languages and practices, and to taking measures to promote awareness and understanding of their rights. [D3 - 13]	United States: Delete "will" and replace with "intend to" Australia: "We will support measures to ensure the full and effective..." Possible 15bis based on language from CSW 2013 on violence against women, adding "multiple forms of discrimination" Norway: "We will intensify our efforts to prevent and eliminate against..." Agree with having another stand alone para on the empowerment of women.	15. We commit to support the empowerment of indigenous women and to formulate and implement, in collaboration with indigenous peoples, particularly indigenous women and their organizations, policies and programmes designed to promote capacity-building and strengthen their leadership. We support measures which will facilitate full and effective participation of indigenous women in decision making processes at all levels and in all areas, and eliminate barriers for their participation in political, economic, social and cultural life.	15. We commit to support the empowerment of indigenous women. We will formulate and implement, in collaboration with indigenous peoples, particularly indigenous women and their organizations, policies and programmes designed to promote capacity-building and strengthen their leadership. We will support measures which will ensure full and effective participation of indigenous women in decision making processes at all levels and in all areas, and eliminate barriers for their participation in political, economic, social and cultural life.

16. We acknowledge that indigenous peoples' justice institutions can play a positive role in providing access to justice and dispute resolution and contribute to harmonious relationships within indigenous peoples' communities and within society. We commit ourselves to coordinating and conducting dialogue with those institutions, where they exist. [D2 – 14][D3 – 14]	United States: Delete "will" and replace with "intend to". Retain emphasis on violence against women. Canada, Suriname, Peru : support emphasis on women. EU: Reinsert "relevant" before "...strengthening" (as in rev 1) Bolivia: Insert "...in consultation and cooperation with indigenous...". Brazil (Suriname, Norway) Add : « older persons and persons with disabilities" Russian Federation: delete "as a matter of priority" delete "and individuals in particular" Venezuela: Add reference to sexual and domestic violence and human trafficking. Agree with Brazil addition of elders and disabled persons. Add to end of sentence "in order to improve the well being of indigenous peoples" Norway: Strengthen OP27 to emphasize issue of violence against indigenous women. It is important that "where appropriate and necessary" stays in the text. Venezuela: Add "... violence, in particular sexual and domestic violence as well as..."	16. We commit to intensify our efforts, in cooperation with indigenous peoples, to prevent and eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against indigenous peoples and individuals, in particular against women, children, youth, older persons and persons with disabilities, by strengthening legal, policy and institutional frameworks.	16. We will increase, as a matter of priority, in cooperation with indigenous peoples, our efforts to prevent and eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against indigenous peoples and individuals, in particular, violence against women, youth and children, by strengthening legal, policy and institutional frameworks. [1st 15]	15. We will increase as a matter of priority, in cooperation with indigenous peoples, our efforts to prevent and eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against indigenous women, youth and children, including by strengthening relevant legal, policy and institutional frameworks. [OP10]	10. Recognise the need to enable and empower indigenous peoples to more effectively address all forms of violence against indigenous women, youth and children, in particular sexual and domestic violence, trafficking and violence related to extractive industries.
17. We commit ourselves to supporting the empowerment of indigenous women and to formulating and implementing, in collaboration with indigenous peoples, in particular indigenous women and their organizations, policies and programmes designed to promote capacity-building and strengthen their leadership. We support measures that will ensure the full and effective participation of indigenous women in decision-making processes at all levels and in all areas and eliminate barriers to their participation in political, economic, social and cultural life. [D3 - 15]	United States: "We commit to establish at the national level where appropriate and necessary, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, a fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent process..." Delete second sentence. EU: Replace "mechanisms" with "process". Delete "culturally appropriate" Vietnam: Insert ", where appropriate and necessary and in accordance with national legislation" after "establish" Japan: "We encourage Member States" or add "in accordance with domestic law" Russian Fed: "We encourage Governments... in accordance with national legislations ». Delete second sentence. Norway: second sentence "in order to obtain their free, prior." Canada: insert to beginning "where they do not already exist" Support US reference to process. Delete last sentence. Brazil: Add "resolve disputes over lands, territories and resources." Delete " safeguard free, prior and informed consent by indigenous peoples prior to development or use of lands, territories and Resources"	17. We commit to establish at the national level, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent processes to acknowledge, advance and adjudicate the rights of indigenous peoples pertaining to lands, territories and resources. Such processes will be culturally appropriate and flexible, and competent to safeguard free, prior and informed consent by indigenous peoples prior to development or use of lands, territories and resources.	17. We commit to establish at the national level, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent mechanisms to acknowledge, advance and adjudicate the rights of indigenous peoples pertaining to lands, territories and resources. Such mechanisms will be culturally appropriate and flexible, and competent to safeguard free, prior and informed consent by indigenous peoples prior to development or use of lands, territories and resources.	16. We commit to establish at the national level, where appropriate and necessary and in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent mechanisms to acknowledge, advance and adjudicate the rights of indigenous peoples pertaining to their lands, territories and resources. [OP22]	22. Commit to establish, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent mechanisms, giving due recognition to indigenous peoples' laws, traditions, customs and land tenure systems, to recognise and adjudicate the rights of indigenous peoples pertaining to their lands, territories and resources, including those that were traditionally owned or otherwise occupied or used. Such mechanisms should be duly authorized by judicial bodies empowered to resolve disputes over lands, territories and resources taken without the free, prior and informed consent of indigenous peoples. Indigenous peoples shall have the right to participate in this process.	This paragraph draws on Article 27 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

18. We commit ourselves to intensifying our efforts, in cooperation with indigenous peoples, to prevent and eliminate all forms of violence and discrimination against indigenous peoples and individuals, in particular, women, children, youth, older persons and persons with disabilities, by strengthening legal, policy and institutional frameworks. [D3 - 16]	United States: "We intend to address the impact... and to promote transparency and the opportunity to benefit from such projects. Any rights of indigenous peoples ... and resources should be clarified in law, policies and practice." Russian Federation: OK with "We intend..." EU: "...commit to conducting studies, in consultation with IPs... on the implications of resource extraction for indigenous peoples in order to incorporate indigenous peoples' rights under international law, including respect for the principle of free, prior and informed consent." Can also include "major development projects" Bolivia: "... and benefit sharing, in accordance with the purposes of the United Nations Déclarations on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples" Norway: "...transparency and that indigenous peoples, when possible participate in the benefits of such activities" - See ILO 169 Art. 15 Canada: add "were appropriate" to second sentence (or both?). Replace "ensure" with "promote"	18. We commit to consult and cooperate with indigenous peoples to address the impact or potential impact of major development projects, including extractive industries and to ensure that indigenous peoples participate in the benefit for such projects. The rights of indigenous peoples regarding development of lands, territories and resources, will be incorporated into law, policies and practice.	18. We commit to address the impact or potential impact of major development projects, including extractive industries, on indigenous peoples and to ensure transparency and benefit sharing. The rights of indigenous peoples regarding development of lands, territories and resources, will be incorporated into law, policies and practice. [1st 18]	17. We commit to define and where appropriate provide, in conjunction with indigenous peoples, programmes and resources to protect and support indigenous peoples' traditional occupations, economies, livelihoods, and food security. [OP23]	23. Commit to define, with free, prior and informed consent of indigenous peoples, programmes and resources to support indigenous peoples' traditional occupations, local and diverse economies and livelihoods, traditional subsistence activities and food security.
19. We invite the Human Rights Council to consider examining the causes and consequences of violence against indigenous women and girls, in consultation with the Special Rapporteur on violence against women, its causes and consequences, the Special Rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples and other special procedures mandate holders within their respective mandates. We also invite the Commission on the Status of Women to consider the issue of the empowerment of indigenous women at a future session. [D3 - 27]	United States: Delete "seeds" EU: "We commit to develop and where appropriate provide..." reinsert "traditional subsistence activities" Bolivia: Add "and nutrition." To end of para. Russian Fed: "...in conjunction with IPs concerned and where appropriate..."	19. We commit to develop, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, and where appropriate, policies, programmes and resources to support indigenous peoples' occupations, traditional subsistence activities, economies, livelihoods, and food security and nutrition.	19. We commit to develop, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, policies, programmes and resources to support indigenous peoples' occupations, economies, livelihoods, seeds, and food security. [1st 17]	18. We commit to address the impact or potential impact of major development projects, including extractive industries, on indigenous peoples to ensure transparency and benefit sharing. Where appropriate, the rights of indigenous peoples regarding development of their lands, territories and resources, will be incorporated into law, policies and practice. [OP25]	25. Commit to examine, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples, the negative implications of resource extraction in order to incorporate indigenous peoples' rights under international law, including respect for the principle of free, prior and informed consent.
20. We recognize commitments made by States, with regard to the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, to consult and cooperate in good faith with the indigenous peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free and informed consent prior to the approval of any project affecting their lands or territories and other resources. [D3-17]	United States: "We affirm and recognize the importance of indigenous peoples' religious and cultural sites, and call upon all states to provide access to and repatriation of their ceremonial objects and human remains. We commit to develop, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned fair, transparent and effective mechanisms for access to and repatriation of ceremonial objects and human remains at national and international levels." EU: add "as set out in UNDRIP", after "sites". Australia (Russian Fed): Delete "as well as call upon all states" replace with "and" Russian Federation: In second sentence at the end of para. Add "... in line with relevant provisions of national legislation" Venezuela : "...repatriation of their ceremonial objects and human remains that constitutive elements of their cultural identity."	20. We affirm and recognize the importance of indigenous peoples' religious and cultural sites, as set up in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and call upon all states to provide access to and repatriation of their ceremonial objects and human remains. We commit to develop, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, fair, transparent and effective mechanisms for access and repatriation of ceremonial objects and human remains at national and international levels.	20. We commit to give effect to indigenous peoples' right to their religious and cultural sites, as well as call upon all states to provide access to and repatriation of their ceremonial objects and human remains. We shall establish fair, transparent and effective mechanisms for access and repatriation at national and international levels in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned. [1st 19]	19. We commit to give effect to indigenous peoples' right to their religious and cultural sites, including access to and repatriation of ceremonial objects and human remains. We will ensure fair, transparent and effective mechanisms are established, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned. [OP12, OP26]	12. Commit to develop fair, transparent and effective mechanisms, in conjunction with indigenous peoples concerned, to enable access to and/or repatriation of ceremonial objects and human remains. 26. Affirm and recognise the right to the protection, preservation and restitution of sacred places, sites and cultural landscapes, and will cooperate with indigenous peoples to establish procedures and mechanisms that effectively promote the implementation of these rights.	This paragraph draws on Article 12 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples

21. We also recognize commitments made by States, with regard to the Declaration, to establish at the national level, in conjunction with the indigenous peoples concerned, fair, independent, impartial, open and transparent processes to acknowledge, advance and adjudicate the rights of indigenous peoples pertaining to lands, territories and resources. [D3 – 17]	United States: We urge Member States to consider the impact of militarization of indigenous peoples land and territories. All parties to armed conflict should seek to protect civilian populations, including civilian indigenous individuals from the effects of El Salvador: Add to end of para "...and in addition, special measures should be adopted to ensure the protection of indigenous peoples, as well as their cultural property in accordance to International Law." EU: Bring in line with UNDRIP - Insert after "relevant public interest" or otherwise freely agreed with or requested by the indigenous peoples concerned" Norway: keep in line with UNDRIP30. Delete first sentence, "we urge Member States to consult with the indigenous peoples concerned..." Australia: Keep in line with Article 30. Add "freely agreed with or requested by the IPs concerned" Russian Fed, Colombia: Stick to UNDRIP30. Brazil: "Reaffirm that military activities shall only take place in the lands or territories of indigenous peoples when justified by a relevant public interest or otherwise freely agreed with or requested by indigenous peoples concerned. In such cases, military forces shall adopt measures to protect the life and property of individuals and communities, to respect their practices and customs and traditions, and to overcome any situation of conflict or tension that may occur."	21. [We urge Member States to address the impact of militarization of indigenous peoples' lands and territories, unless military activity is justified by a relevant public interest.] Where military activities exist in the land or territories of indigenous peoples, we urge Member States to immediately commence effective consultations with the indigenous peoples concerned. All parties [to armed conflict] should seek to protect civilian populations, including indigenous peoples, from the effect of conflict.	21. We urge Member States to initiate processes to demilitarize indigenous peoples' lands and territories, unless military activity is justified by a relevant public interest. Where military activities exist, we urge Member States to immediately commence effective consultations with the indigenous peoples concerned. [1st 20]	20. We urge Member States to initiate processes to demilitarize indigenous peoples lands and territories, unless militarization is justified by a relevant public interest. Where militarization exists, we urge Member States to immediately commence effective consultations with the indigenous peoples concerned. [OP33]	33. Urge Member States to cease militarization of lands, territories, waters and oceans of Indigenous Peoples and initiate processes to demilitarize these areas. Special measures should be adopted to ensure the protection of Indigenous Elders, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities, particularly in the context of armed conflicts.	This paragraph draws on Article 30 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
22. We recognize that the traditional knowledge, innovations and practices of indigenous peoples and local communities make an important contribution to the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity. We acknowledge the importance of the participation of indigenous peoples, wherever possible, in the benefits of their knowledge, innovations and practices.	United States: "use, modify and improve existing United Nations mechanisms to more effectively promote respect for and implementation of the United Nations Declaration..." Russian Federation: Replace "in consultation with" with "bearing in mind the concerns of indigenous peoples". Canada: Second sentence "...to more effectively promote the UNDRIP" Norway: Support current draft with USA insertions. Mexico: Support para, as is.	22. We invite the United Nations Human Rights Council in consultation with indigenous peoples, to recommend to the 71st session of the General Assembly on options to use, modify and improve existing United Nations mechanisms to more effectively promote respect for and implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. In this process, the Council may review the role of the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples to better assist Member States to monitor, evaluate and improve implementation of the Declaration.	22. We invite the United Nations Human Rights Council in consultation with indigenous peoples, to recommend to the 71st session of the General Assembly on options to use existing United Nations mechanisms to more effectively promote respect for and full application of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. In this process, the Council may review the role of the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples to better assist Member States to monitor, evaluate and improve implementation of the Declaration. [1st 21]	21. We invite the United Nations Human Rights Council, in cooperation with the High Commissioner for Human Rights, and in consultation with indigenous peoples, to recommend to the 71st session of the General Assembly on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, options to use existing United Nations mechanisms to more effectively promote respect for and full application of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. [OP13]	13. Request the United Nations Human Rights Council, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples, to consider recommending to the 71st session of the General Assembly possible ways to more effectively evaluate and improve the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.	This paragraph seeks to give effect to the intention of Articles 41 and 42 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

23. We intend to work with indigenous peoples to address the impact or potential impact on them of major development projects, including those involving the activities of extractive industries, including with the aim of managing risks appropriately. [D3- 18]	United States: Second sentence - Insert "where appropriate" after "commit". Vietnam: "We encourage Member States to include as appropriate information..." Australia: "we will consider the inclusion of..." Russian Federation: "we consider to include where relevant information..." EU: Reference to TBs mandates - we note that the previous wording without the phrase would be sufficient, not supportive to add new, but can consider. "We commit, where relevant, to include information on the situation on the rights of the indigenous peoples, including the measures taken to pursue the objectives of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, in our reports to the Human Rights Treaty Monitoring Bodies and the Universal Periodic Review." New Zealand - supportive of EU proposal. South Africa: Proposed language was read out too fast for dictation. Waiting for written comments.	23. We invite Human Rights Treaty bodies to consider the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in accordance with their existing mandates. We encourage Member States to include, as appropriate information on the situation of the rights of indigenous peoples , including the measures taken to pursue the objectives of the United Nations Declaration on Indigenous Peoples in reports to Human Rights Treaty bodies, and in the Universal Periodic Review.	23. We invite Human Rights Treaty bodies to consider the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in accordance with their existing mandates. We commit to include information regarding the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on Indigenous Peoples in our reports to Human Rights Treaty bodies, and in Universal Periodic Review procedures. [1st 22]	22. We invite Human Rights Treaty bodies to consider the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples as appropriate. We commit, where relevant, to include information regarding indigenous rights and the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on Indigenous Peoples in our reports to Human Rights Treaty bodies and in Universal Periodic Review procedures. [OP14]	14. Encourage Human Rights Treaty bodies to consider including in their deliberations the relevant provisions of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and to focus attention on their implementation.
24. We recall the responsibility of transnational corporations and other business enterprises to respect all applicable laws and international principles, including the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights: Implementing the United Nations "Protect, Respect and Remedy" Framework, and to operate transparently and in a socially and environmentally responsible manner. In this regard, we commit ourselves to taking further steps, as appropriate, to prevent abuses of the rights of indigenous peoples.	United States: Delete "will" replace with "plan to" Australia: replace "ends" with "aims" or "goals" Russian Federation: replace "ends" with "goals". Second sentence – Return to formulation of Rev. 1. Delete "will" Canada: "advancing the goals of UNDRIP"	24. We welcome the increasingly important role of national human rights institutions, as well as regional human rights institutions in contributing to the achievement of the goals of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We encourage the private sector, civil society, and academia to take an active role in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples.	24. We welcome the increasingly important role of national human rights institutions, as well as regional human rights institutions in contributing to the achievement of the ends of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We will encourage the private sector, civil society, and academia to take an active role in respecting, promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples. [1st 23]	23. We welcome the increasingly important role of national human rights institutions , as well as civil society, the private sector, and academia, in the promotion and protection of the human rights of indigenous peoples and encourage their active role in achieving the ends of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. [OP16]	16. Recall the General Assembly Resolution on National institutions for the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights and welcome the increasingly important role of national human rights institutions in the promotion and protection of the human rights of indigenous peoples and encourage their active role in advancing the implementation of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
25. We commit ourselves to developing, in conjunction with the indigenous peoples concerned, and where appropriate, policies, programmes and resources to support indigenous peoples' occupations, traditional subsistence activities, economies, livelihoods, food security and nutrition. [D3 – 19]	United States: We request the Secretary-General, consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples, Member States, and the Chief Executive Board (CEB) to develop policies and mechanisms within existing resources, to ensure a coherent system-wide approach UN system to the full realization of the relevant provisions of United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. El Salvador: Preference for previous version (para 24 in previous draft). Canada: add a deadline for development of SWAP. End para with "approach to achieving the ends of the UNDRIP." Russian Fed: SWAP is premature. Deadlines are helpful. Refer to achieving the goals of UNDRIP.	25. We request the Secretary-General, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples and Member States, to develop a System-wide Action Plan within existing resources, to ensure a coherent approach to the full realization of the provisions of United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.	25. We request the Secretary-General, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples and Member States, to develop a System-wide Action Plan within existing resources, to ensure a coherent approach to the full realization of the provisions of United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. [1st 24]	24. We request the Secretary-General, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples, Member States, and other relevant stakeholders, to develop a System-wide Action Plan to achieve United Nations system coherence which, through the mobilization inter alia of financial cooperation and technical assistance, will contribute to the full realization of the provisions of United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. [OP17]	17. Request the Secretary-General, with the support of the United Nations Inter-Agency Support Group for Indigenous Issues, and with indigenous peoples, Member States, and other relevant stakeholders, to develop a draft System-wide Action Plan focused on the following priority areas:(κ) Eradication of poverty (b) Violence against indigenous women and children; (c) The right to communication; (d) Inter-culturality of health and education; (e) Occupations, livelihoods, entrepreneurship; (f) Data disaggregation and indicators; (g) Establishment of national level inter-agency support groups; (h) Indigenous persons with a disability; (0 Good governance and access to justice; and (J) Strengthening human rights protection mechanisms.	The SWAP seeks to give effect to the intention of Articles 41 and 42 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

26. We recognize the importance of the role that indigenous peoples can play in economic, social and environmental development through traditional sustainable agricultural practices, including traditional seed supply systems, and access to credit and other financial services, markets, secure land tenure, health care, social services, education, training, knowledge and appropriate and affordable technologies, including for irrigation, and water harvesting and storage. [D3 – 19] vér	United States: Add to end of para: " and to present a range of options to the 71st Session of the General Assembly in this regard. We further invite the Secretary General to provide cost estimates for such an appointment to be considered by the General Assembly."	26. We invite the Secretary General, in light of the need for increased awareness of the rights of indigenous peoples, to give consideration to the appointment of a United Nations official at the highest possible level.	26. We invite the Secretary General, in light of the need for increased awareness of the rights of indigenous peoples, to give consideration to the appointment of a United Nations official at the highest possible level. [1st 25]	25. We invite the Secretary General, in light of the need for increased awareness of the rights of indigenous peoples, to give consideration to the appointment of a United Nations official at the highest possible level. [OP18]	18. Invite the Secretary General to give consideration to the appointment of a High Representative for Indigenous Peoples, at the appropriate level, to raise awareness of the proposed Action Plan, after its adoption, and to mobilize support for its Subsequent implementation.	This paragraph seeks to give effect to the intention of Articles 41 and 42 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.
27. We affirm and recognize the importance of indigenous peoples' religious and cultural sites and of providing access to and repatriation of their ceremonial objects and human remains in accordance with the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. We commit ourselves to developing, in conjunction with the indigenous peoples concerned, fair, transparent and effective mechanisms for access to and repatriation of ceremonial objects and human remains at the national and international levels. [D3 – 20]	United States: Second sentence "We also invite the Economic and Social Council to request the Commission... will be the subject of discussion at a future session." El Salvador: Second sentence "We also request the Commission on the Status of Women to consider as an emerging issue for its 60th session "the empowerment of indigenous women". EU: 1st sentence: reinsert "within their respective mandates" -supported by Norway 2nd sentence : "We invite CSW to focus on the empowerment of indigenous women at its upcoming sessions, drawing on the inputs of the relevant UN bodies and mechanisms, including the UNPFII." Brazil (Chile, Norway): Refer specifically to the Spécial Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. Russian Federation: "We also invite ECOSOC... to recommend to the CSW the empowerment of indigenous women as a theme at a future session..." Chile: Para should include reference to participation/consultation with indigenous peoples. Norway: to include "direct participation" add at end "for the considération of the General Assembly".	27. We invite the Human Rights Council to consider examining the causes and consequences of violence against indigenous women and girls, in consultation with the Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women, the Special Rapporteur on the Rights of indigenous peoples and other Special Procedures within their respective mandates. We also invite the Economic and Social Council to recommend to the Commission on the Status of Women "the empowerment of indigenous women" as a priority theme at a future session.	27. We invite the Human Rights Council to consider examining the causes and consequences of violence against indigenous women and girls, in consultation with the Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women and other Special Procedures. We also request the Economic and Social Council to call on the Commission on the Status of Women to decide at its 59th session that "the empowerment of indigenous women" will be a priority theme at a future session. [1st 26]	26. We invite the Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women to consider continuing to examine the causes and consequences of violence against indigenous women and girls within her mandate. We also call upon the Commission on the Status of Women to consider "the empowerment of indigenous women" as a theme for a future session, to be undertaken in consultation with the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues. [OP19]	19. Request the Secretary General, taking into account the aforementioned priority areas, in particular, violence against indigenous women and children, to assign responsibility to the Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women, to examine the causes and consequences of this violence dimension
28. We invite the Human Rights Council, taking into account the views of indigenous peoples, to review the mandates of its existing mechanisms, in particular the Expert Mechanism on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, during the sixty-ninth session of the General Assembly, with a view to modifying and improving the Expert Mechanism so that it can more effectively promote respect for the Declaration, including by better assisting Member States to monitor, evaluate and improve the achievement of the ends of the Declaration. [D3 – 22]	United States: "... we request the Secretary-General, taking into account views expressed by indigenous peoples, to present." EU: "... request the Secretary-General to suggest concrete measures that may enable the direct participation of Indigenous Peoples through their institutions and organisations in UN meetings on issues affecting them to the 69/70th session of the General Assembly." Russian Federation: "... to present concrete proposals to the 70th Session of the General Assembly this regard." Chile: Include reference to the Permanent Forum? Mexico: Support para, as is. Brazil: Delete "direct	28. Building on the report of the Secretary-General on ways and means of promoting participation at the United Nations of indigenous peoples' representatives on the issues affecting them, we request the Secretary-General, taking into account views expressed by indigenous peoples, to present concrete proposals to the 70th Session of the General Assembly in this regard.	28. Building on the report of the Secretary-General on ways and means of promoting participation at the United Nations of indigenous peoples' representatives on the issues affecting them, we request the Secretary-General to present concrete proposals to the 70th Session of the General Assembly that enable the direct participation of indigenous peoples' and their representative institutions at the United Nations. [1st 27]	27. Building on the report of the Secretary-General on ways and means of promoting participation at the United Nations of indigenous peoples' representatives on the issues affecting them, and recognizing the right of indigenous peoples to maintain and strengthen their distinct political institutions, we request the Secretary-General to further develop proposals to the General Assembly on enhanced participation of indigenous peoples' at the United Nations. [OP20]	20. Building on the report of the Secretary-General on ways and means of promoting participation at the United Nations of indigenous peoples' representatives on the issues affecting them, and the proposals it contains, we request the Secretary-General to consider preparation of specific proposals regarding participation of indigenous peoples' governments at the United Nations	This paragraph reflects Articles 5 and 20 of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

29. We invite the human rights treaty bodies to consider the Declaration in accordance with their respective mandates. We encourage Member States to include, as appropriate, information on the situation of the rights of indigenous peoples, including measures taken to pursue the objectives of the Declaration, in reports to those bodies and during the universal periodic review process. [D3 – 23]	EU: Unclear para. Delete. Norway: Unclear para. Russian Federation: "to organize a discussion which will explore system wide policies and procedures on IPs within ECOSOC bodies" [Awaiting written submission from Russian Fed.]	29. [We invite the Economic and Social Council to organize a high-level panel discussion in conjunction with indigenous peoples, during its Coordination and Management meetings to review the policies and procedures on indigenous peoples within ECOSOC subsidiary bodies.]	29. We invite the Economic and Social Council to organize a high-level panel discussion in conjunction with indigenous peoples, during its Coordination and Management meetings to review the policies and procedures on indigenous peoples within ECOSOC subsidiary bodies. [1st 28]	broad discussion, during its Coordination and Management meetings and under the agenda item on Social and Human Rights Questions, which will explore system-wide in the UN the policies and procedures on indigenous peoples within ECOSOC subsidiary bodies, engaging with Indigenous peoples and the relevant United Nations
30. We welcome the increasingly important role of national and regional human rights institutions in contributing to the achievement of the ends of the Declaration. We encourage the private sector, civil society and academic institutions to take an active role in promoting and protecting the rights of indigenous peoples. [D3 – 24]		30. We commit to respect the contributions of indigenous peoples to ecosystem management and sustainable development. This includes knowledge generated through experience in hunting, gathering, fishing, pastoralism and agriculture, as well as their sciences, technologies and cultures.	30. We commit to respect the contributions of indigenous peoples to ecosystem management and sustainable development. This includes knowledge generated through experience in hunting, gathering, fishing, pastoralism and agriculture, as well as their sciences, technologies and cultures. [1st 29]	29. We recognize and respect the relevance of the experiences of indigenous peoples to securing sustainable development. This includes knowledge generated through experience in hunting, gathering, fishing, pastoralism and agriculture, as well as their sciences, technologies and cultures. [OP29 & OP30]	29. Recognize the particular experience and knowledge accumulated by indigenous peoples with respect to securing sustainable development, through hunting, gathering, pastoralism, small scale agriculture and farming and call upon all actors to share their experiences in the formulation of the post-2015 development Framework. 30. Recognize the role of indigenous peoples' traditional knowledge and strategies as well as manifestation of their sciences, technologies and cultures in maintaining resilience when developing all national and international policies, standards and measures on climate change prevention, adaptation and mitigation.
31. We request the Secretary-General, in consultation and cooperation with indigenous peoples, the Inter-Agency Support Group on Indigenous Peoples' Issues and Member States, to begin the development, within existing resources, of a system-wide action plan to ensure a coherent approach to achieving the ends of the Declaration and to report to the General Assembly at its seventieth session, through the Economic and Social Council, on progress made. We invite the Secretary-General to accord, by the end of the seventieth session of the Assembly, an existing senior official of the United Nations system, with access to the highest levels of decision-making within the system, responsibility for coordinating the action plan, raising awareness of the rights of indigenous peoples at the highest possible level and increasing the coherence of the activities of the system in this regard. [D0 - 17]	United States: " We affirm that indigenous peoples' knowledge and strategies that sustain their environment should be respected when we develop..." EU: Add "as appropriate" after "utilised" Australia, USA: "Drawn upon", instead of "utilized"	31. [We confirm that indigenous peoples' knowledge and strategies to sustain their environment will be respected and utilized when we develop national and international policies, standards and measures on climate change mitigation and adaptation.]	31. We confirm that indigenous peoples' knowledge and strategies to sustain their environment will be respected and utilized when we develop national and international policies, standards and measures on climate change mitigation and adaptation. [1st 30]	30. We agree that indigenous peoples' knowledge and strategies to sustain their environment should be respected when we develop national and international policies, standards and measures on climate change prevention, mitigation and adaptation. [OP30]	30. Recognize the role of indigenous peoples' traditional knowledge and strategies as well as manifestation of their sciences, technologies and cultures in maintaining resilience when developing all national and international policies, standards and measures on climate change prevention, adaptation and mitigation.
32. We invite United Nations agencies, funds and programmes, in addition to resident coordinators, where appropriate, to support the implementation, upon request, of national action plans, strategies or other measures to achieve the ends of the Declaration, in accordance with national priorities and United Nations Development Assistance Frameworks, where they exist, through better coordination and cooperation.	EU: "We commit to..." Iran (Venezuela, Brazil): refer to "right to development" Australia, USA: opposes addition of "right to development"	32. We commit to give due consideration to the rights of indigenous peoples, including the right to development in the process of elaborating the post-2015 development agenda and to mainstream the promotion and protection of their cultures and rights into the development agenda at the national, regional and international levels. [1st 31]	32. We resolve to give due consideration to the rights of indigenous peoples in the process of elaborating the post-2015 development agenda and to mainstream the promotion and protection of their cultures and rights into the development agenda at the national, regional and international levels. [1st 31]	31. We decide to give due consideration to the rights of indigenous peoples in the post-2015 development agenda and to mainstream the promotion and protection of these rights into the development agenda at the national, regional and international levels. [OP28]	28. Commit to give due consideration to the rights of indigenous peoples in the elaboration of the post-2015 development agenda and to mainstream the promotion and protection of these rights into the development agenda at the national, regional and international levels.	This paragraph draws on resolution 68/149 (OP7).
33. We commit ourselves to considering, at the seventieth session of the General Assembly, ways to enable the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions in meetings of relevant United Nations bodies on issues affecting them, including any specific proposals made by the Secretary-General in response to the request made in paragraph 40 below. [D3 – 28]		33. We invite Member States and actively encourage the private sector, and other institutions to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for indigenous peoples, the United Nations Trust Fund on Indigenous Issues, IFAD Indigenous Peoples Assistance Facility, and the United Nations Indigenous Peoples Partnership as a means of promoting the rights of indigenous peoples worldwide.	33. We invite Member States and actively encourage the private sector, and other institutions to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples, the United Nations Trust Fund on Indigenous Issues, IFAD Indigenous Peoples Assistance Facility, and the United Nations Indigenous Peoples Partnership as a means of promoting the rights of indigenous peoples worldwide. [1st 32]	32. We invite Member States, the private sector, and other institutions to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples, the United Nations Trust Fund on Indigenous Issues, IFAD Indigenous Peoples Assistance Facility, and the United Nations Indigenous Peoples Partnership as a means of promoting the rights of indigenous peoples worldwide. [OP36]	36. Invite Member States and the private sector alike to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples, the United Nations Trust Fund on Indigenous Issues and the United Nations Indigenous Peoples Partnership as a means of promoting the rights of indigenous peoples worldwide.

34. We encourage Governments to recognize the significant contribution of indigenous peoples to the promotion of sustainable development, in order to achieve a just balance among the economic, social and environmental needs of present and future generations, and the need to promote harmony with nature to protect our planet and its ecosystems, known as Mother Earth in a number of countries and regions. [D3 - 30]	EU: Delete para. Suriname:... include information on the realization of the MDGs for indigenous peoples... [Awaiting written submission from Suriname]	34. [We request the Secretary-General to include a specific focus on indigenous peoples in the final report on the achievement of the millennium development goals.]	34. We request the Secretary-General to include a specific focus on indigenous peoples in the final report on the achievement of the millennium development goals. [1st 33]	33. We request the Secretary General to include a specific focus on indigenous peoples in the final report on the achievement of the millennium development goals. [OP38]	38. Request the General Assembly to include a specific focus on indigenous peoples in its final report on the achievement of the millennium development Goals.
35. We commit ourselves to respecting the contributions of indigenous peoples to ecosystem management and sustainable development, including knowledge acquired through experience in hunting, gathering, fishing, pastoralism and agriculture, as well as their sciences, technologies and cultures. [D3 - 30]	United States: add "Including information requested in para 25 and 26"	35. We request the Secretary-General, in coordination with relevant United Nations system entities, to report on progress to the 71st session of the General Assembly and make recommendations, as appropriate, for further concrete steps to implement this outcome document.	35. We request the Secretary-General, in coordination with relevant United Nations system entities, to report on progress to the 71st session of the General Assembly and make recommendations, as appropriate, for further concrete steps to implement this outcome document. [1st 34]	34. We request the Secretary-General, in coordination with all the relevant United Nations system entities, to report on progress to the 71st session of the General Assembly and make recommendations, as appropriate, for further concrete steps to implement this outcome document. [OP37 & OP39]	37. Request the Secretary-General, in coordination with all the relevant United Nations entities, to include information on progress made in the implementation of this outcome document in reports on issues concerning Indigenous Peoples, and to make recommendations, as appropriate, for concrete and further steps to implement the present outcome document within the context of the development agenda beyond 2015. 39. Request the Secretary General to report to the 70th session of the General Assembly on progress toward implementation of this outcome document.
36. We confirm that indigenous peoples' knowledge and strategies to sustain their environment should be respected and taken into account when we develop national and international approaches to climate change mitigation and adaptation. [D3 - 31]	United States, EU: Delete paragraph.		36. We request the Secretary-General to revert on the financial implications, if any, at the sixty-ninth session of the United Nations General Assembly.
37. We note that indigenous peoples have the right to determine and develop priorities and strategies for exercising their right to development. In this regard, we commit ourselves to giving due consideration to all the rights of indigenous peoples in the elaboration of the post-2015 development agenda. [D3 - 32]
38. We invite Member States and actively encourage the private sector and other institutions to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Fund for Indigenous Peoples, the Trust Fund on Indigenous Issues, the Indigenous Peoples Assistance Facility and the United Nations Indigenous Peoples' Partnership as a means of respecting and promoting the rights of indigenous peoples worldwide. [D3 - 33]

39. We request the Secretary-General to include relevant information on indigenous peoples in his final report on the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals. [D3 - 34]

40. We request the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Inter-Agency Support Group on Indigenous Peoples' Issues and Member States, taking into account the views expressed by indigenous peoples, to report to the General Assembly at its seventieth session on the implementation of the present outcome document, and to submit at the same session, through the Economic and Social Council, recommendations regarding how to use, modify and improve existing United Nations mechanisms to achieve the ends of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, ways to enhance a coherent, system-wide approach to achieving the ends of the Declaration and specific proposals to enable the participation of indigenous peoples' representatives and institutions, building on his report on ways and means of promoting participation at the United Nations of indigenous peoples' representatives on the issues affecting them. [D3 - 35]

* Orange : new or significant changes in 3rd draft
 Underlined words in 2nd draft : eliminated (missing) in 3rd draft
Purple : new or changes in 2nd Draft
Blue : new in 1st Draft
Red : in Zero Draft but eliminated or significantly changed in 1st Draft
 Green : minor changes in wording
Red & italics (in 4th column - « Zero Draft as distributed »): the whole article is missing from the First Draft
 Light green background in final version : article's number changed regarding 3rd draft yellow background : new article in final version
Blue -bold in final version : new regarding 3rd draft