Strand Palace Hotel,
London, W.C. 2.

August 6th, 1923.

The Hon. Sir James Eric Drummond, K.C.M.G.; C.B.
Secretary General of
The League of Nations,
Geneva. S

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose the formal representation and application of the Six Nations of the Grand River to the League of Nations and to say that acknowledgment by mail of its receipt may be addressed to me as above where I shall remain until departing for Geneva on or about the 20th inst. bearing with me credentials as Deputy of the Six Nations Council.

In the mean time I shall offer these credentials for inspection by the London branch office of the League of Nations.

The urgency of the matter prompts me to request that it be scheduled for consideration at the coming session for September prox.

I remain, Sir,
Very respectfully yours,

J. Eskdale
