

U 1.7.
NAT

S-AUS-2

Native Title Report

1998

*Acting Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander
Social Justice Commissioner*

contents

1. Introduction—Striking the balance	9
2. International human rights standards and native title	27
The International human rights framework and native title
Emerging international standards relating to Indigenous peoples
3. The amendments to the right to negotiate provisions and the meaning of equality	73
Rights taken away
Equality and the right to negotiate
4. 'Achieving real outcomes': Agreements and native title	119
Agreements—Challenges and achievements
The native title agreement making process and the enjoyment of human rights by Indigenous people
The Native Title Amendment Act 1998 (Cth):
Likely impact on agreement making
The 'essence of what native title can be'
Appendix One
National Indigenous Working Group Statement, 8 July 1998	149
Appendix Two
Extract from Quandamooka process agreement	155
Appendix Three
Indigenous Land Use Agreement provisions	158
Table 1: Coverage of ILUA provisions
Table 2: Summary of ILUA provisions	