

INDIAN ROOTS of American Democracy

Special Constitution Bicentennial Edition, 1988
Published by the NORTHEAST INDIAN Quarterly
Edited and with Introduction by Jose Barreiro

CONTENTS

Poem - "The Law Is In the Seed"	v
Alex Jacobs/Karoniaktatie
Acknowledgements	viii
Charlotte Heth
Foreword	xi
Introduction: Challenging the Eurocentric Notion	xii
Jose Barreiro
 Section I HAUDENOSAUNEE SPEAKERS
Words That Come Before All Else	2
Thanksgiving Address
Everything Has To Be In Balance	4
Audrey Shenandoah
Men Who Are Of The Good Mind	8
Tom Porter
The Indian Way Is A Thinking Tradition	13
John Mohawk
Land Of the Free/ Home Of the Brave	18
Oren Lyons
The Great Law Takes A Long Time To Learn	21
Jacob Thomas
 Section II ACADEMIC SPEAKERS
Colonial History: 300 Years Of Cultural History	26
Daniel Usner
It Is Time To Take Away The Veil	28
Donald Grinde
The Price of American Liberty Is Paid By Indian Lands	35
Robert W. Venables
Indian Thought Was Often In Their Minds	40
Bruce Johansen
The Iroquois Had Democracy Before We Did	44
Bruce Burton
Discovery of Morgan Papers Adds To The Evidence	49
Greg Schaaf

Section III LEGAL SCHOLARS

On The Historic Quality Of The Nation-to-Nation Relationship	54
Arlinda Locklear
A Clear Statement from Congress Is Needed On Indian Rights	57
Vine Deloria
Indian Rights Deserve International Protection	61
Robert T. Coulter

Section IV ROOTS OF THE WOMEN'S LINE

Mother Of Nations - The Peace Queen	68
Interview with Peter Jemison, by Stephen Fadden
Her Word Was Law: Excerpts from Parker	70
Poem - "Twoborn"	71
Daniel Thompson/rokwaho

APPENDICES

Appendix A: Senate Resolution	74
Appendix B: Glossary	76