

CONTENTS

6	Kupu Whakataki - introduction
9	Texts of the Treaty
13	Overview
14	The constitutional significance of the Treaty of Waitangi
16	The legal force of the Treaty today
25	Historical background
26	Introduction
26	The Declaration of Independence – He Whakaputanga o te Rangatiratanga o Nu Tireni
28	Why a treaty?
29	Instructions given to Hobson for negotiating the Treaty
31	The Treaty signing process
31	Assurances and explanations given to Māori prior to signing the Treaty
33	Māori responses to the Treaty proposal
37	Events which established the British Crown's sovereignty over New Zealand
37	Differences between the English and Māori texts of the Treaty
41	Where has the Treaty been all these years?
47	Key concepts in the Treaty exchange
48	Introduction
49	Tino rangatiratanga
55	Kāwanatanga
60	Taonga
65	Common law parallels – fiduciary duty and developmental rights

73	The Principles of the Treaty of Waitangi as expressed by the Courts and the Waitangi Tribunal
74	Introduction
74	Legislative references to the principles of the Treaty
77	The principle of partnership
78	The Courts
78	The duty to act reasonably, honourably, and in good faith
80	The Waitangi Tribunal
80	The principle of reciprocity
82	The principle of mutual benefit
84	The duty to act reasonably, honourably and in good faith
85	The duty to make informed decisions
93	The principle of active protection
100	The principle of redress
107	Policy resources
108	A summary of policy resources
108	Legislation with Treaty references
108	Government policy
108	Relevant government publications
109	Organisational expertise
109	International instruments
110	Appendices
111	Appendix One: legislation with Treaty references
112	Appendix Two: key government goals to guide public sector policy and performance
114	Appendix Three: new principles to guide the settlement of historical Treaty claims
116	Appendix Four: relevant government publications
119	Appendix Five: organisational expertise
127	Appendix Six: international instruments
128	Appendix Seven: glossary of Māori terms
129	Appendix Eight: bibliography
139	Appendix Nine: footnotes